SUMMARY AND STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

General Course Objectives: The Foreign Language C course (advanced level 2) is aimed at first-year Master of Science students (FGJH, UT). The course serves to teach the foreign language at an advanced linguistic level. For this, students are expected to have acquired Italian language knowledge at levels B2 and C1. This course also enables the acquisition and deepening of knowledge related to the structures and vocabulary of some types of specialized languages.

Specific Course Objectives:

The student should be able to:

1. Express themselves fluently in Italian.
2. Engage in conversation and exchange opinions on specific academic-level topics.
3. Read and translate various texts, including literary works, newspaper articles, and other materials with specialized content.

Expected Learning Outcomes:

1. Development of fluency and linguistic accuracy in Italian at the C1 level, both in speaking and writing, within academic and specialized contexts.
2. Proficiency in translating, summarizing, and interpreting various materials, including literary texts, press articles, and texts with professional or technical content.
3. Effective use of idiomatic expressions and advanced vocabulary, expressing structured ideas and well-argued thoughts in different communication situations.
