SUMMARY AND STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

General Course Objectives: The student should have a basic knowledge of the Turkish language. The Turkish language as a second language is developed in two modules offered in the first and second semesters. Students will work with an advanced level method, at level C1 of the selected teaching method. They will be able to use critical reading skills in the foreign language, such as reading for comprehension and drawing conclusions. They will also use communication strategies.

Specific Course Objectives:

1. Writing presentations and organizing lessons in Turkish.
2. Working with advanced vocabulary by using guessing, extracting meaning from context, and recognizing prefixes and suffixes.
3. Expanding vocabulary through definitions and the use of words in sentences.

Expected Learning Outcomes:

1. Development of advanced language competencies in Turkish, including understanding, writing, and expressing oneself clearly and fluently in academic and professional contexts.
2. Proficiency in using advanced vocabulary through context analysis, use of synonyms, antonyms, prefixes/suffixes, and precise definitions.
3. Mastery of skills to structure and present materials in Turkish, using appropriate communication strategies and critical reading to derive meanings and formulate reasoned conclusions.
