COURSE SYLLABUS
LANGUAGE C6 – (English)

Workload: 4 credits, 40 teaching hours

Year / semester: Year III, Semester II

Course type: Compulsory course

Study program: Bachelor

Code of Ethics: Code of Ethics, University of Tirana (Articles 4, 6, 7, 9)

SUMMARY AND LEARNING OUTCOMES:

The course aims to further develop students' language skills in speaking, writing, listening, and reading through authentic texts, interactive activities, and diverse topics. It focuses on vocabulary enrichment, mastering grammatical structures, and using everyday language, thereby building students' confidence in communication.

In addition to the main textbook, the material will be supplemented with additional resources that encourage independent learning, supported throughout the process by the instructor.

By the end of the course, students should be able to:

Ask and answer questions in English on various everyday life topics.

Discuss different topics presented in the book as well as those proposed by the students themselves.

Develop language awareness by identifying and correcting mistakes, transforming sentences, and completing gap-fill exercises.

Enhance listening skills with different types of texts.

Improve speaking skills to speak fluently, using clear language and grammatical rules, enabling them to describe, discuss, hypothesize, argue, and express their opinions on various issues.

Deepen their ability to work independently.
