

REPUBLIC OF ALBANIA
UNIVERSITY OF TIRANA
FACULTY OF FOREIGN LANGUAGES
DEPARTMENT OF FRENCH LANGUAGE

COURSE PROGRAM:
FRENCH LANGUAGE 1

Workload: 5 ECTS credits, 50 seminar hours

Academic Year / Semester: First year, first semester

Course Type: Compulsory course

Study Program: Bachelor in French Language and Albanian Sign Language

Code of Ethics: University of Tirana Code of Ethics (Articles 4, 6, 7, 9)

COURSE SUMMARY AND LEARNING OUTCOMES

General Course Objectives:

To acquire knowledge of the linguistic elements of French at the lexical, syntactic, and grammatical levels, while respecting phonetic specificities. To develop observation and analytical skills, as well as a range of learning strategies that progressively lead to language autonomy. To develop the ability to select and use expressions and structures in order to introduce oneself, talk about activities and habits, describe people and situations, locate events in time and space, express preferences and opinions, request and provide information, and talk about past and future events.

Specific Course Objectives:

- Development of oral and written communication skills.
- Acquisition of grammatical and lexical knowledge.
- Development of intercultural competence and use of authentic materials.
- Encouragement of active participation, independent work, and individual research.

Expected Learning Outcomes:

1. To understand and use simple everyday expressions for basic communication needs.
2. To introduce oneself and provide personal information (name, age, nationality, address, etc.).
3. To read and understand short texts, notices, signs, timetables, and simple instructions.
4. To write short messages and complete forms with personal data.
5. To participate in simple conversations and respond to basic questions and instructions.